Mihika Dutta of class X and Krithik Ranjan of class XI had been awarded the PASCH scholarship for a German Language Course for young students as part of an International Youth Camp at St. Peter Ording, Germany from 29th May to 18th June 2016. The selection was on the basis of an interview conducted by Goethe-Institut Max Mueller Bhavan for German learning students from all Pasch schools of Delhi NCR. Having secured the highest scores in the Delhi NCR region, they represented India at the Camp along with students from Chandigarh, Pune and Gwalior.

There were 47 participants in the course, from four countries: Singapore, Thailand, Vietnam, and India.

To test their level of German, the Goethe-Institut team conducted an entrance exam involving an oral and written round for all students on the first day of the Camp in Germany. Both Mihika and Krithik were selected for the B1 level course. At the end of the 3 weeks, they gave the B1 level examination conducted by Goethe-Institute Hamburg. The examination tested their reading, writing, listening and speaking skills in which they fared extremely well.

They stayed at a campus of a boarding school, called NordSee Internat which had several recreational facilities, like football field, beach volleyball, basketball, cycle tours, Table tennis and Kicker, Theatre hall, and even a Mini Golf area.

A normal day at St. Peter-Ording comprised of intensive and interactive German lessons and a lot of interesting activities to make their stay there as enjoyable as possible.

The GI team also took the students for several excursions to various German cities like Husum, Hamburg and Flensburg( a city near the German-Danish border).
