ARTHASHASTRA & CONFEST 2024

The Consumer Care Council, in collaboration with the Commerce Eco Club, organized the inter-school event "Arthashastra and Confest 2024" to raise awareness about consumer rights and protection against deceptive advertising. This competition, aimed at students from classes 11 and 12, saw participation from 22 schools. The event showcased the students' enthusiasm and innovative approaches toward consumer protection, leaving the audience impressed with their creativity and insightful perspectives.

S.NO	CLASS	EVENT NAME	BRIEF EVENT INTRODUCTION
1.	XI & XII	CONSUMER WEB	The "Consumer Web" competition offered students an engaging platform to demonstrate their web design skills while tackling real-world consumer issues. Participants were challenged to create innovative digital experiences that not only captivate users but also educate and empower them regarding consumer rights and issues. This competition encouraged students to merge creativity with practical problem-solving, showcasing their ability to address consumer challenges through digital means.
2.	XI & XII	CASE CHRONICLES	“Case Chronicles” required participants to delve into a real legal case related to consumer care, product safety, or deceptive practices. They conducted thorough research on the case, including the legal arguments, implications, and verdict. Their findings were then presented in a captivating manner, along with an eye-catching poster designed to raise awareness about the specific case.
